Another election is over, the results are in, many candidates are jubilant, more are disappointed. The voters in the Quinte area have again returned a solid Conservative representation to Parliament. Jack Ellis scored an unexpected victory over Frank Fallwell in the Hastings Riding, George Hees was returned for another term in Prince Edward-Hastings, and Douglas Alkenbrack defeated Liberal Peter McKinnon in the Frontenac-Lennox & Addington riding. All three candidates led the voting very comfortably and were elected with large majorities. The percentage turnout at the polls was about the same as last year, although the lowering of the voting age meant that more people actually cast their vote. 74.5% of the electorate went to the polls this year as compared to 74.8% in the last federal election.

On the national scene the liberals were returned with a very close margin. This has been the closest election in Canadian history, and the results will cause problems in the immediate future. Neither of the major parties is strong enough to form an effective government. The balance of power lies with the NDP's, so that much depends upon which party they side with. NDP leader Lewis stated that he did not intend to form a co-alition government, but would vote with the party where policies were of greatest benefit to the Canadian people. The leader of the Social Credit party said much the same thing. All in all it looks as though things are going to be very tricky in Ottawa for a while.

Another change, on top of the great PC gains is the increase in female representation in Parliament. This time five women were elected to Parliament, three in Quebec, where a woman has never been elected before. One of the women is a local lady, Miss Flora MacDonald, who was elected for the PC's from Kingston and the Islands.

Now that all the shouting is over it is apparent that if a government is formed it will be a very weak one, which means that the Canadian voters can look forward to another election in the not too distant future.

Letters to the Editor

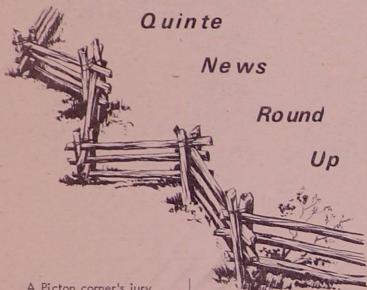

TO THE EDITOR:

On Friday, October 27th, I was in the Bank of Commerce in Deseronto at 4:30 p.m. to cash my pay cheque, as were approximately 20 to 30 others. And to my dismay as well as everybody else's, there was only one wicket open. This is not just the first time, but this happens quite regularly.

I get the impression that they feel they are doing the public a favour, rather than a service. Upon talking to several of the people in the lineup, that this is the main reason for so many people, who live in Deseronto to do their banking outside of the Town. If the Bank of Commerce does not wish to lose more of its depositors, they should do something about the service and P.D.Q.

Round Up

A Picton corner's jury were unable to make any suggestions to prevent more accidents of the type in which Douglas Zachariah, 43, of L.R. 1, Hillier was killed on August 16th. The accident was a head-on crash between his car driven by Mr. Zachariah and the pick-up truck driven by Maxon Robson of L.R. 2, Picton. It appears that Mr. Zachariah was attempting to avoid an oncoming vehicle when his car collided with the truck. Mr. Zachariah was driving west, the accident occurred in the east-bound lane.

There was a heated discussion between board of education trustees at Napanee recently over the spending of $34,000 more than the estimated cost of the new playing field near Napanee and District High School. The extra cost was incurred by the tilling and sodding of an area not included in the plans. "We're being saddled with someone else's error" said Mr. Munroe, chairman of the Gibbard Park Committee. The issue will be studied by the board for a report at the next meeting.

Home Hardware, Main Street, Picton, is now classified as a first rate Home Hardware store. Proprietor Willard Martin held his grand opening ceremony last week, with Mayor Margaret Ackerman there to do the honours. This is the oldest hardware store in Canada. It was established in its present location in 1841. The only store in Picton with a longer history is Teasel's Drug Store, which was opened in the late 1820's.

Two of the three proposed new commercial developments for Napanee are progressing. The shopping plaza which is to be located on the C.A. Milligan property west of No. 41 Highway, is now at the working drawing stage, according to Wally Dorosh, manager of Omsac Developments Ltd. of Toronto. The company hopes to begin work on the site by June at the latest. Mr. Dorosh's firm is anxious to have local merchants in the plaza because they know the market. Also in the planning stage is the Holiday Inn which is to be built at the Imperial Oil Centre at the junction of Highway 401 and Palace Road. The company hoped to break ground this fall, but officials now say that work will probably start in the spring.

No information is available concerning the other shopping centre which was to be built opposite the Lennox and Addington County General Hospital.

Four of the fourteen escapees from Millhaven this summer have been sentenced to terms in Kingston Penitentiary ranging from 12 to 18 months. Ronald Fillion, Robert Clark, Gaston Lambert and John Taylor were quiet and well behaved in court. All four convicts were recaptured within 18 hours of their escape.

Some Napanee students were out trick or treating for UNICEF on Halloween again this year. Instead of collecting treats they were collecting coins which will be contributed to the UNICEF fund. Last year the residents of Napanee contributed $1,500 to the fund.

Picton Mayor Margaret

Ackerman has stated that she will run again for the office of Mayor. She is now completing her first two year term. Former Mayor Harvey McFarland has stated that he will not stand again, although several people have approached him about the matter. Reeve Albert Piroth has confirmed that he will seek re-election to a municipal office but declines to comment on rumours that he intends to stand for the office of Mayor against Mrs. Ackerman.

A Millhaven inmate has been sentenced to an additional term of two months after he failed to report back to the institution from a temporary day pass in Toronto. Clifford Lloyd Hagan was picked up by Toronto police three weeks after he was supposed to return to the minimum security annex on Sept. 18th. The inmate had only one month of his sentence left to serve.

Confusion reigns in Napanee over the Police Commission investigation which is now underway. Both the town council and the local police association requested an investigation, and no one seems to know which investigation is being carried out. Council members feel that the results of the investigation should be made public, but the Police Commission has stated the results will only be published if they feel that action is necessary.

A charter member of the Pictou Kinsmen Club recalled the early history of the club in a speech there last week. He reminded members that the club was formed in 1944 with William Branscombe as its first president. At that time a dinner meeting cost $1.00, 80 cents for the meal, 10 cents gratuity and 10 cents towards the cost of the bulletin. Some of their first projects were raising money for Milk for Britain sending cigarettes to the serving members of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. He reminded members of their motto "serving the community's greatest need."

Union speaks for cement company

Local 387 at the Pictou Cement Plant is again speaking out about the lack of a licence to quarry sand from the sandbanks. The union president, Mr. Stewart Norval said that they had heard nothing since representatives of the union met with MLA James Taylor two weeks ago. They recently tried to reach Mr. Taylor, but could not do so until last Tuesday when he said that he had nothing to tell them at that time. Mr. Taylor said that he understands that some of the rehabilitation aspects are under review by the mines department. Under the Act the firm must undertake to leave the quarry in a certain state. Spokesmen for the firm say that the stockpile of sand will run out in 50 days.

Morning-after Pills Tried at University

Several Canadian Universities have been trying out the new "morning after" pill. Medical Staff of Queen's University, the University of Toronto, Ryerson College, and the University of Alberta, have all prescribed the pill to students. Recent reports also indicate that it has been used at Harvard, Yale and Stanford Universities in the States, for a number of years.

Treatment consists of high dosages of synthetic female hormone, which will prevent pregnancy if given not more than 72 hours after unprotected intercourse. This treatment is described as an emergency measure only, because the required doses of hormone are so high. Dr. Edward Paul, the physician at Queen's Health Centre believes that the treatment is no more dangerous than pregnancy, but he did not think that the method should be used more than once or twice a year.

Latest statistics from Yale University showed that out of 1,000 students treated with 50 milligrams of Silbesterol, only one pregnancy resulted. The usual dosage is five milligrams

Millhaven: guards foresee a riot

Ten of the fifty guards at Millhaven Maximum security institution have revealed their fear that there will be a major riot in the prison before long. Guards have recently found guns, ammunition and drugs on prison property.

According to the guards who made the report, but who wish to remain anonymous to protect themselves, 75% of the prison staff feel that trouble is brewing. A "smash up" has already occurred this month when 13 prisoners wrecked their cells, causing a total of $10,000 in damages. This report was verified by prison officials, who did not confirm the estimate of the damages. The guards claim that the cause of the trouble lies in the lack of discipline and realistic prison policies, in the discontent of the guards and their loss of morale, in staff shortages and in defects in the construction of the prison itself. The instigators of trouble within the prison are not segregated from the rest of the inmates, and the psychopaths in the complex are not controlled or segregated either.

Both John Maloney, regional director of penitentiary services in Kingston, and Paul Faguy federal commissioner of penitentiaries, declined to comment on the guards' charges.

Sandbanks Charges

Provincial court judge J.L. Clendenning has reserved ruling on motions to quash charges laid against the Lake Ontario Cement Company Ltd. and Triad Truckways under the Environmental Protection Act until January 12, 1973.

A Toronto vacationer Agda Rayner laid the charges in relation to the emission of noise from the heavy equipment used in excavating sand at the site. The quarry site is next to the Sandbanks Provincial Park and the Sandbanks Beach Resort. It is alleged that the noise from the machinery impairs the environment.

The announcement to reserve ruling came at the end of a six hour session during which the lawyers argued about the validity of the charges. Lawyers representing Triad Truckways and LOCL said that the charges were invalid and did not disclose an offence known to law, that the charges are void for multiplicity, duplicity and uncertainty, and the charge is completely misconceived and does not apply to the section under which the charges were laid. It was maintained by the defence lawyers that noise does not constitute a contaminant because it does not affect the quality of the air. Mr. Aubrey Gal- den, representing the Environmental Law Association and Morris Manning of the Ontario attorney-general's office argued that the charges should be heard because they are valid.

Judge Clendenning said that the hearing had taken much longer than he had anticipated and stated he would lay over the case until early January.

Mohawk Band Hosts Meetings

The Tyendinaga Mohawks recently were hosts to members of six other bands and to Mr. A.B. Haw, a director of the National Health and Welfare and to two of Mr. Haw's assistants. The meetings were held to discuss the problems of medical services, the difficulties encountered on the reserves, and what could be done to solve these difficulties in the future. Later Tyendinaga Reserve hosted meetings of two different committees of the Association of Iroquois and Allied Indians, over a two-day period. They were studying the Indian Act and discussing various sections of it and the interpretations of each section. Chief Hill said that it will take many months of hard work to accomplish anything.

BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE

By: Brant Joseph Maracle

Speaking to Nature as if she had a soul,
Traversing upon, communicating with mother earth,
The land was strong.
Lightening flashed across the amber skies!
The winds as a fipple-flute embraced my sun-kissed face,
Serene, contented my heart,
For I a Native was part of Nature,
The animals my brothers; the vegetation my sisters,
My respect for Nature,
Exceeded only by my respect for the Great Spirit.

But, Hark! an intruder is upon the land,
Wounding the mother earth
that supports their feet,
My ears hear strange and foreign words,
Exploitation, expropriation, pollution!
Raped and destroyed natural resources,
Resources upon which we depend for - food, clothing, and shelter.

Nature as a wounded dove,
Fit upon my native shoulder,

I take her tenderly in my hands,
I will shelter her, nurture her,
She is wounded - She speaks to me,
I listen, for I love her,
I will speak for her,
For I am a Native,
Restore the balance between man and his surroundings.

CANRON SPOOKS

by Del Wannamaker

Canron of Napanee C.E.R.A. Club held their Hallowe'en Dance on Saturday, at the Napanee Golf and Country Club. Dancing was from 8 to 1 a.m. with a marvelous lunch put on by C.E.R.A. Members, everyone had a marvelous time. Winners of the costume judging were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Vandallen: Best Variety Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore: For the most original Mr. Lyle Woods: Best Comic. Mr. Vandallen was dressed as an early time gentleman, Mrs. VanDallen as the Jolly (Ho-Ho) Green Giant. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were dressed as Mr. and Mrs. Davie Crockett.

Mr. Lyle Woods was dressed in a clown outfit, of which he filled both the costume and the roll.

This was the first time I had attended a Hallowe'en Dance and was quite impressed by the number of costumes and variety, and it was one of the best dances, for no rowdiness and the jolly good spirits that everyone showed. So next year you people who missed this affair, be sure to set aside this date, it is well worth the time, even if you are a wall flower (like me) you can have a great time.

The Trail of Broken Treaties Indians Demonstrate in Washington

Mr. Brant Joseph Maracle, 32, a well known Tyendinaga Mohawk Indian, who recently attended the North American Indian demonstration in Washington, D.C., had many comments to make about the occurrences in Washington when he returned to Deseronto this week.

Many Indians, representative of tribes and nations all over the North American continent converged on Washington last week to follow the "Trail of Broken Treaties". The demonstration was initiated as a highly organized, peaceful manoeuvre, carefully planned and clearly outlined in a schedule of activities. In addition to the presentation of a 20 point solution paper to government representatives, other important activities listed in the schedule were the following:

It is not the purpose of the American Indian Assembly in Washington, D.C. to cause civil disorder, black traffic, burn flags, destroy property or shoot obscenities in the streets.

Under the guidance of the "Great Spirit", we the Natives of this land, do hereby assemble in the Capital of the United States of America in order to focus attention on the Treaties, Laws, Rules, Regulations and Policies that rob Indian People of their pride and dignity.

We, the Native People of this hemisphere, demand that the Government of the United States honor and take positive action to fulfill its treaty obligations with the Natives of Canada, Mexico, the United States and its territories.

We, the Native People of this hemisphere, demand that the Government of the United States cause the enactment of Congressional legislation that will remove Indian Affairs from the natural resource department of the Interior and establish a Federal Indian Commission responsible directly to the President.

In this rich and most powerful nation, we Indian People have been forced to exist in poverty while our Counterparts flourished in an everincreasing affluent society.

We seek, urge and demand that the candidates for the presidency from the Democratic and Republican parties meet with the membership of the TRAIL OF BROKEN TREATIES and expound upon their positions affecting the Native American People. We seek a pledge from each candidate which will consummate those previously stated objectives of the TRAIL OF BROKEN TREATIES, whose theme is "The Pan-American Native Quest for Justice."

Once in Washington, however, the organization disintegrated, mainly because the authorities had failed to provide adequate facilities for the large numbers of natives who went to Washington to participate in the demonstration.

Mr. Maracle provided us with the news release, also featured in this edition, outlining the events in Washington.

During their stay in Washington, the natives also drew up a schedule of nine demands, titled the Trail of Broken Treaties Pan American Native Quest for Justice. The demands were as follows:

1. We demand that we get the Executive and Legislative action on our twenty (20) point solution papers.
2. We demand that John Crow be relieved of his duty as Deputy Commissioner.
3. We demand that Harrison Loesch be relieved of his duty as Assistant Secretary.

4. We demand that Louis Bruce be given back his authority as Commissioner until such executive and legislative actions are implemented on our twenty point solutions papers.

5. We demand proper housing and facilities during our stay in D.C.

6. We demand that commitments made to Indian People over the Johnson-O'Malley Issue in Oklahoma be honored and be written to the people.

7. We demand that urban and landless Indians be given proper services entitled to them same as treaty Indians (medical, etc.).

8. We demand that all bones and artifacts of our ancestors be restored to our people for reburial.

9. We demand that Bob Robertson be relieved of his duty as Director of National Council on Indian Opportunity and be replaced by an Indian.

Washington authorities have repeatedly set back the deadline for the evacuation of the Indians from the Bureau of Indian Affairs building in Washington. At present the deadline is set for 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday. The natives are determined to meet violence with violence, and to take a life for a life, if necessary. This is the greatest confrontation between the whites and the Indians for 200 years. Many Indians from Canada participated, since the Indian people claim to be North Americans, not Americans or Canadians.

Mr. Maracle left Washington for Ottawa to offer help to Caughnawaga 8 - a band of Indians who had refused to vacate the Department of Indian Affairs building in Ottawa until their demands are met - their chief demand is that financial aid should be given to the Indian oriented school in Caughnawaga. Unknown to the Indians in Washington, the building had been vacated last Friday.

On his way to Ottawa Mr. Maracle stopped at the Onondaga nation to consult

The traditional cenotaph parade will be held in Deseronto on Remembrance Day, Saturday, November 11th. The parade will form up outside the legion hall at 10:45 a.m. to march to the cenotaph for 11:00 a.m. The cubs and the girl guides will march with members of the Legion.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

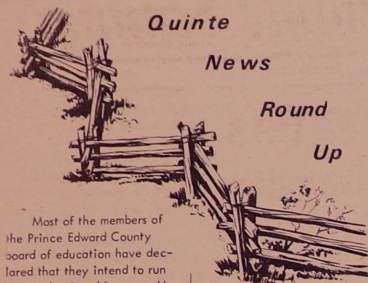

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you, from falling hands, we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Fields.

Most of the members of the Prince Edward County board of education have declared that they intend to run for re-election this year. Undecided are separate school representatives Jerry Bond, Harmon Montgomery of Ameliasburgh and Edward Rutter of Bloomfield and Hallowell, it is reported that Ross Benway, the present county warden may be interested in seeking a school board seat.

A director of training has been appointed to Prince Edward Heights, the provincial government complex for the mentally retarded in Picton.

The new director is Eugene Moran, who was formerly the director of the adult training and rehabilitation unit at Cedar Springs Hospital School. Mr. Moran has a varied background in hospital work and in the training and rehabilitation of both young people and adults.

A Napanee man walked away from an accident in which the car he was driving was hit by a moving train. Mr. Gilbert Myatt said he felt a little stiff and bruised after the accident. He was turning his car round on a dead street when he went over the railway crossing. He did not see the train until he was on the lines. The CNR engine was travelling at about 10 miles per hour and pushed Mr. Myatt's car off the tracks. It is thought that the slow speed of the train and the fact that it did not hit the car dead centre saved Mr. Myatt's life.

Inadequate budget control was blamed for the over expenditure of the Gibbard Park athletic field project in Napanee. Mr. J.C. McLeod, director of education said that budget control in the accounting department of the Lennox and Addington board was the key to the problem.

He said that somebody should have stopped expenditure when the limit was reached. Mr. McLeod also said that the over-expenditure could be financed by the board during 1973 without any strain on the municipalities.

Donald Sutton of Hillier township has announced that he intends to stand for election as reeve if he is nominated, he will replace Ross Benway if he is elected. Mr. Benway will not stand this year.

Millhaven guards have decided to remain at work pending negotiations between six of their members and Mr. Paul Faguy, commissioner of penitentiaries. The talks are aimed at improving the working conditions in the penitentiary and spokesmen for the guards say that if the talks are not successful, then the guards may start booking off sick again.

This action was taken last week, leaving only 15 men on duty to guard the 365 inmates at times. The guards have complained that the institution is poorly designed and built, badly administered and easy to escape from.

Douglas Alkenbrack is off to Ottawa to represent Frontenac-Lennox and Addington riding, with a promise to press for a change in policy with regard to prisons. He said that the prime regard should be for the protection of persons, property and security.

Ameliasburgh township held a special meeting recently so that the elected representatives could report to the taxpayers. The taxpayers were not too interested since only 30 people attended the meeting. Among the topics reported on were plans for proposed additions to Kente School, which are well advanced. It is hoped that approval will be given during 1973. At present Ameliasburgh students are bussed to Belleville for high school education.

Construction in Ameliasburgh this year has set an all time record, and could go even higher according to Harry Bisdee, the Township building inspector.

The museum has also had good attendance this year, well up from last year. It was also reported that the improvements to the township park, especially the tennis courts, have proved to be very popular.

Several Prince Edward county councillors have declared their intentions for the coming municipal elections, many intend to seek re-election for another term. Mr. George Vincent, reeve of Hallowell, said that he had considered retirement, but would seek re-election if no other suitable candidate could be found.

Deputy-reeve Keith MacDonald has shown interest in running for the position of reeve for Hallowell. Picton reeve Al Piroth has confirmed that he intends to run for office, and rumour has it that he intends to oppose Mrs. Ackerman for the position of Mayor.

The reeves of both South Marysburgh and Ameliasburgh will run again, but Hillier township reeve, Ross Benway will step down from politics

Halloween

...NO TRICKS!

Deseronto Police Department reports that Halloween was very quiet this year. The police officers had very few calls when local children were out trick or treating. Chief

Beattie attributes this to the added patrolmen, Mitch Roebuck, Vern Boomhour, Wayne Brant and Eric Herman, members of the Deseronto voluntary Fire Department, and also to the number of parents that took the time to go out with their children, making this past Halloween a peaceful one for the adults and a more rewarding one for the children.

DESERONTO TOWN COUNCIL

by Del Wannamaker

Deseronto Council has received a letter from the Department of Transportation and Communications stating that Highway 502 will be turned back to the counties of Hastings and Lennox & Addington as soon as construction on the new overpass at the north-west end of Napanee is completed. Some discussion arose over the possibility that Highway 2 might also be turned back to the counties, but council was assured that there were no immediate plans for this.

The Deseronto Lions Club asked council to rezone their property at the east end of town from residential to commercial in case they have to build their medical centre there. Council undertook to apply for rezoning on behalf of the Lions Club.

James McVicker, streets chairman, expressed concern over the problem of snow removal this winter, and asked council for the authority to hire outside help to assist with this job. The power was granted and a meeting should be held to discuss this subject in detail next week.

Council is to write to the Department of Transport and Communications to ask when the renovations on Highway 2 are expected to begin. Reeve Lyons stated that this will probably take place over the next three years.

Council approved a motion that Boy Scout apple day should be held in Deseronto on November 18th. The date was changed to avoid a clash with Poppy Day on Nov. 4th.

A lively discussion arose about the state of Deseronto's streets. The manhole covers have been removed for inspection, and in several places this has left holes up to 6 inches deep, which are a definite hazard to motorists. Council hopes that this situation will be remedied very quickly.

this year, he also served as county warden. Sophiasburgh deputy-reeve Roy Brooks also intends to run this year.

Several of the councillors are still undecided, including Wellington reeve Douglas Marvin, Bloomfield reeve Allan Anderson, Sophiasburgh reeve George Foster and North Marysburgh reeve Harold Harrison.

Mrs. Charlotte Troywalchuck of Hollowell Township and her four children were left homeless when her trailer home caught fire. The trailer was completely gutted and damage is estimated at more than $5,000. The trailer was located at a trailer park on Upper Lake Street. Bloomfield-Hollowell fire department responded to the call shortly after 9 a.m. Mrs. Troywalchuck was at work and the children were at school.

Constable William Kelleher of the Picton detachment of the OPP investigated.

A contest for the position of mayor of Napanee is developing for the municipal election to be held Dec. 4th this year. Mr. Roy McEwen is to challenge Mayor Lorne Smart who has held the position for 12 years.

There are also a number of possible candidates for council seats and most town councillors have declared their intentions to seek reelection. Nominations will be accepted for the election from Nov. 9th to 13th.

Because of the recent changes in the Municipal Act, four townships in Lennox & Addington are eligible for post of deputy reeve because the voting age has been dropped to 18 and the property requirements have also been changed. Municipalities with between 1,000 and 2,000 electors are entitled to both a reeve and a deputy-reeve. North Fredericksburgh, Kildar, Denbigh and Sheffield Townships are now eligible for the new officials.

The Picton Cable TV Company, Quinte Cablevision Ltd., has announced that future services will also include Channel 10, an educational TV station.

Hallow — Weenies

by Del Wannamaker

Hallow'en this year was bigger and, I guess, better than ever; at 9:30 p.m. some goblins were still knocking on our door. As always there were some well made up spooks out on the prowl, and it was quite hard to tell who they were, and to know how old they were, though I suspect they were well over the teenage bracket. It was also a time of sore feet, sick stomachs, and the youngest saying "Carry me Dad." Even though plenty of spooks combed the streets not too much damage was done -- at least, no more than usual.

Nowadays people say that Hallow'en has become too wild - but just remember back to the 40s and 50s, when we were out on the town, and you will see that we got into just as much mischief as the kids of today. Some of the tricks that I remember are taking all the benches and teeter-totters out of the park and loading them into a truck going to Napanee. We also took a farm wagon and put it on top of a farmer's barn, much to his dismay. Another time we took six outhouses to the four main corners in Frankford and set them on fire. (I guess that one is out nowadays - those items are pretty hard to find now!)

I suppose you could say that these were real destructive deeds, but it also took a lot of hard work, something kids seem to shy away from today.

As for people putting things into the young ones' treats, they have to be sick in the head. I have a good cure for anyone caught doing this and all you need is a good stump, a hammer, a nail and a shove in the right direction. I feel, myself, that the reason this has become so popular is because of the publicity that the news media gives such things.

We had another Hallow'en coper last Monday, but it was held all across Canada by the two big powers in the country - only trouble is, the ones who put it on are going to be the only ones who will benefit by it. With the two powers tied, they will be very lucky if they accomplish anything.

We have elections coming up in town as well, I expect that anyone who is nominated will get in by acclamation - people in this town take very little interest in what council does, unless it affects them personally.

In the year and a half that I served on council there were more than three people in attendance twice, and there are always two from the press. If people are interested what council does, I don't know why they don't show it by going to some of the meetings. It's easy to stand on the corner and run them down, but why not do the criticizing at the meetings - it doesn't cost anything!

Mohawks to Picket Radio Station

Mr. Brant Maracle of Deseronto, accompanied by a number of Indian People are planning to picket one of the local radio stations which is daily featuring advertising specials that are discriminatory and serve as an affront to the character of the Indian People. The Indians are tired of having to bear the brunt of ethnic jokes, that are representative of a further attempt to rob the people of their pride. They view the action of this radio station as highly inflammatory and very discriminatory and plan to demonstrate outside the building soon.

with the Great Council, an assembly of the chiefs of the six nations of the Iroquoian Confederacy, and to acquaint them with the accretions in Washington. It has consequently been suggested that the chiefs, and two-appointed spokesmen from the demonstrators should now confer in Washington with the government authorities about the questions raised by the Indian demonstration.

Mr. Maracle is an active worker for the Indian cause. He is the author of the "Fever and Frustration of the Indian Heart", and an International lecturer on the Indian cause and the culture and customs of the North American Indian. He has a lecture scheduled on November 30th at Quinte High School in Belleville, where he will address the general student assembly at 1:30 p.m.

Indian news

On Wednesday morning we Natives arrived in Washington, D.C. and for all purposes there was a lack of proper housing and facilities. Churches that had opened their doors to civil right, peace movements, etc. suddenly closed their doors to the American Indians. In this period just prior to the U.S. Nov. 7th Presidential elections we feel that this sudden closing of doors was the result of definite government directives. President Nixon didn't want the political waters further disturbed, the minorities and general U.S. public stirred over the injustices that the Government was perpetuating against the American Natives.

On Thursday morning approximately 500 of us Natives went to the Bureau of Indian Affairs Building, Constitution Avenue to request proper housing and facilities. Our request was turned down flat. It seems rather strange that adequate housing could not be arranged by the Interior Department while millions and millions of dollars can be spent on an unjust war in Asia, while the debt to the American Indian is near totally forgotten.

Thursday afternoon, and in the Bureau of Indian Affairs building we were addressed by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior Department, Harrison Loesch. Late on Thursday afternoon the Interior Department offered us accommodations in the auditorium of the Interior building. However, there were no dining facilities or beds. We decided to remain in the B.I.A. building until proper housing and facilities were provided. Late Thursday afternoon the immediate vicinity of the B.I.A. building had the appearance of a police state in order to confer with Brad Patterson, of the White House minority affairs office, Harr- At 8 p.m. on Thursday evening a number of our Indian representatives went to the Interior Department building Loesch, Under Secretary of the Interior, Louis Bruce, Commissioner of the B.I.A., and Bob Roberts, an assistant to Vice President Agnew and Director of the National Council of Indian Opportunity. Today John Ericman, President Nixon's top White House advisor is conferring with our Natives in Washington. This is quite interesting in view of the fact that when we first arrived in Washington the lack of response from the White House was most in evidence.

Mrs. Kay Hood - 396-2119

The Kingston Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, held their executive meeting of the Church of the Redeemer on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 1st with 27 present. The president, Mrs. Effie Williamson of Trenton, was in charge of the meeting. Report forms were given out to group presidents, which are to be returned by the end of November. Plans were made for the annual meeting, to be held at St. Andrew's Church, Belleville on Wednesday, January 17th. Following the meeting everyone enjoyed a friendly chat over a cup of tea and cookies served by the ladies of the church.

Mrs. Bertha Claus of Hastings Manor spent Sunday with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Claus and Alfred and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hill, Beverley and Robert.

Mrs. Harry Rosborough from Big Island and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Coventry of Picton, were Sunday guests of Mrs. James Hines, Mill St.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Brown of Belleville, called on Mrs. Sam Geddes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brim of Grimsby, were visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Brim, Mill St. last week.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Brim were Mr. and Mrs. F. McKnight of Kingston and Mr. and Mrs. W. Hudson.

Mrs. M. Watters and Mrs. C. Hunter of Deseronto were among the almost 500 attending the Dahoonneh Area Guide meeting and training session at MacArthur College in Kingston on Saturday.

Deseronto Public School collected over $125 for UNICEF this year. This is almost twice as much as in 1971 and with only one class canvassing the town during school hours. This is due to the co-operation of the community and the efforts of each of the classes in their own fund raising projects.

Deseronto Arena Fund Raising Committee are selling Ontario Sports Lottery tickets as well as tickets on a colour television set. Tickets are available from chairman David Johnson or any other member of the committee.

Rev. Joseph Tubby will be conducting the Sunday evening services at Deseronto Pentecostal Church.

CARDS OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my family, friends, St. Mark's A.C.W., and Rev. and Mrs. Frank Bell for their visits, gifts, flowers and get well wishes while I was a patient at Hotel Dieu Hospital. Also many thanks to Rev. Bell for seeing me safely home from hospital. Last but not least, thanks to the Deseronto Police Department who, in my opinion, are a credit to their uniform and community. God bless all.

Municipal Elections

DESERONTO

The voters of Deseronto must elect three councillors, a deputy-reeve and a P.U. commissioner.

There will be no election this year for the positions of mayor and reeve because Deseronto is still working on a staggered system. The elections for mayor, reeve, three councillors and a P.U. commissioner for a 2 year term will take place next year. This will put Deseronto in line with the rest of Ontario, ready for the 1974 municipal election.

At the time the Scanner went to press the list of candidates was as follows: - Councillors - Peter Dickinson and Fletcher Vick, who are presently on council, will run again. Also standing for election as councillor are John Neal, Frank Topping, Kevin Sexsmith and Terry Whalen.

Alfred P. Brooks and Joseph C. Reynolds are nominated for the position of Deputy Reeve, Mr. Reynolds is a councillor at present.

One P.U. commissioner is to be elected. Merton Cummings, the incumbent is standing again, and Arthur Hunter is also running.

The list of names is not absolutely final, withdrawals may be made until 5 p.m. on Tuesday evening.

TYENDINAGA

The forthcoming municipal election will be a relatively simple affair in Tyendinaga township. The council has been returned by acclamation for another term, with Leonard Walsh as Reeve, George Blatherwick as Deputy-Reeve, and Charles Long, Kenneth Juby and Raymond Hunt as councillors.

An election will be held for the township's representative for the Hastings, Prince-Edward Separate School Board. Gerald Walsh and Angus Yorke are standing for this position.

In Richmond Township, the reeve is to be chosen from two candidates, Arthur Switzer and Bruce Cuthill. Deputy-Reeve Thomas A. Richmond was returned by acclamation.

There are six nominations for council, with three councillors to be elected. The nominations are Morley Oliver, James McCutcheon, George H. Chalk, Allan Gregg, Floyd Scott and Edward Ford.

One School Trustee is to be elected, with three candidates running, they are Clayton Doyle, Gordon Osborne and Robert Brown.

SOPHIASBURG

In Sophiasburg the nominations for the position of reeve were George Foster and Ray Brooks. Three men are standing for Deputy-Reeve - Max MacDonald, Wayne Lindsey and Jack Sprague. Both Mr. Lindsey and Mr. Sprague are also running for council, and it is expected that one of them will withdraw from the contest for deputy-reeve. In addition to Mr. Lindsey and Mr. Sprague, Leland Dossiec and Mrs. A. Grieves have also been nominated for council.

The nomination for Sophiasburg's School Trustee is John Huskinson.

Successful Protest:

Tyendinaga Mohawk Brant Maracle told the Scanner reporter on Tuesday, that Mr. Allen Brooks, station manager of CKWS in Kingston, has informed him both by mail and telephone, that the "Stoned Ranger" features which were broadcast twice daily on CKWS will be definitely dropped this Friday, Nov. 17th.

Mr. Maracle commended Mr. Brooks and the management for what he termed "a most worthy decision".

Brant organised the meeting which took place at the CKWS building last Friday. He saw the arrival of a number of Mohawk Indians, supported by local students, who voiced their protest over the "Stoned Ranger" features, which they considered were discriminatory, and blatantly subjected the Indian People to mockery and ridicule. In addition he was involved in two negotiation sessions with CKWS which effectively removed the feature from broadcasts by the Kingston station.

Mr. Maracle also had two appointments with Chief Earl Hill, when he acquainted him with the "Stoned Ranger" feature. Chief Hill supported Mr. Maracle by expressing the Band Council's opposition to the feature to CKWS. Brant was "very grateful" for this support.

After this initial local victory Brant is turning his attention to the problem of removing the "Stoned Ranger" from all Canadian outlets. He has consulted the Ontario Human Rights Commission in Toronto, who have pledged their support. He has also approached several prominent citizens and attorneys in Toronto.

He has pledged himself to take all appropriate steps and to exert all necessary pressure to achieve his goal.

Mohawk LOL 99 Open

Mohawk Lodge LOL 99 held an official opening ceremony in their new building recently. The evening's programme included a delicious buffet supper, prepared by the ladies of Pine Lodge and a very interesting film show.

Special guests at the event included the Right Worshipful James Breen, Grand Master of Ontario East who was the guest speaker.

Other head table guests were South Hastings County master Mr. Bill Rollins and his wife, and the Past Master of the Frankford lodge, Mr. Harold Vosborough. Also at head table was the Grand Register of the Grand Black Chapter of Eastern Ontario, Mr. Herbert Wallace.

Mr. Wallace entertained the company with a film later in the evening. The film showed several different parades, and autumn scenes from South Mountain.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Bennet Brant recording secretary for the Mohawk lodge. Mr. Albert Maracle is the lodge master.

A total of 60-65 guests, including members' wives, spent a very pleasant evening together, with many more to come.

Indians End Bureau Sit-in Protesting Indians who seized the Bureau of Indian Affairs building in Washington, returned it to the US government last Wednesday.

When they left the building they took with them Indian artifacts which had been on display, which many of the natives held sacred, and also documents which they claim show that public officials have been deliberately depriving Indians of their property for many years.

During their occupation of the building they posted a sign on the door that said Native American Embassy and erected a tepee on the lawn where leaders of the Trail of Broken Treaties caravan met to confer.

Although very little support was given to the Indians when they arrived in Washington.

Lennox and Addington County Public Library Board are sponsoring displays of local handicrafts at four county libraries this month.

Displays such as pottery, quilting, candle making, macrame, weaving and artists at work will be held at Napanee and Amherstview libraries Nov. 15 from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. The displays will be repeated at the Newburgh Library Nov. 20th from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. and at the Sandhurst Public School Nov. 21st from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Picton Council has approved a resolution to Prince Edward County council supporting the members of the Quinte Travel Trailer Club in their request that a site should be provided for short stays or overnight visits of long distance travellers who come to the area to snowmobile.

Napanee policemen set an overtime record of 139 hours in October. The overtime was due partly to Halloween and partly to the fact that the department is one man short. The six man police force clocked a total of 2,500 miles on the police cruiser and investigated over 400 occurrences.

Only one copy of the Picton police report was supplied to last week's meeting of the Picton Town Council. The report was read by Mayor Ackerman. Reeve Albert Pirelt requested copies for councillors, but was told that he would receive a Xerox copy with the minutes of the meeting and should address his complaints on the subject to the town police department.

Napanee's Santa Claus Parade is scheduled for Nov. 25th this year. The sponsors are the Napanee and district Jaycees, who are stressing the need for participation and support from local merchants and organizations to help with costs.

The parade will form up at the Prince Charles Public School and will start at 10:30 a.m.

Bill Vankoughnet and Ted Smart are accepting entries.

Picton board of works staff and town engineer David McIntosh had to extricate a number of cars from the mud in Mary St. School Parking lot. A lot of gravel was laid in the lot to allow cars to drive across the muddy area to the firm portion at the rear.

The lowest tenders for the reconstruction of Highway 41 from Kaladar to Erinsville have been submitted by the H.J. McFarland Construction Company of Picton. It could take 10 days for the usual procedures to be followed before the contract for the five mile reconstruction job can be awarded. The highway was constructed in 1938 and has not had any major improvements since then.

Estimated costs for the overall project exceed $1 million.

Napanee police force are to negotiate with town council for their 1973 contract. They have given council 60 days notice, but have not yet specified the terms of their 1973 objectives.

The provincial government apparently intends to override the requests of the residents of Prince Edward County as far as the development of the area is concerned.

At a meeting held recently between the planning board, county council, and representatives of the Ministry of Natural Resources and ARDA, Mr. Eric Gage, the Ministry representative explained that the necessity for providing public recreation areas must probably override the desires of local people. The government representatives were told that local residents did not want the area to become a playground for the rest of the province but wanted to have some diversified industry.

Napanee's nine man council has announced intentions for the election.

Mayor Lorne Smart is to seek re-election, as is Reeve Glen Harrington. Deputy-reve Ernest Marshall is still undecided as to the position he will run for, but intends to seek re-election. As far as the councillors are concerned, Clayton Woodcock will run for deputy-reve, Neal Storrington for council, Reg Vick for council and Cecil Baker for council.

"SEGOH"

Dear Friend -

I read an article somewhere that one woman stated, she judged her new neighbours by the clothes on the line. (I feel clothes look better on people). The way I can tell how welcome you are is - if the kettle goes on. And not that I get out visiting too much lately since we moved to the farm.

I find it's the same here when I do get out, on goes the kettle.

There's something about this to me say's "welcome and let's chat". Grandma has her kettle on before you're in the house, and the table set. Aunt L. "wishes she knew you were coming, she'd have baked. And has even, as quick as a wink, made up biscuits my husband loves. A farmer friend across the bay brings out her lovely pie. A cat lover friend always has the tea ready. Another friend (who knows I skip meals) makes me asparagus soup. I don't look for the treats, just the kettle on. It's an old custom in most houses, and reminds me of that song, "Come round any old time and make yourself at home".

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid and W.M.S. held their meeting on Tuesday evening, November 7th at the home of Mrs. Blake Moore, with 10 members present. Mrs. Jean Griffiths was in charge of the devotions and Mission Study, which is on India. Mrs. Blake Moore led in prayer, Mrs. Moore also gave a reading called "The World is Mine", and Mrs. Kay Hood one called "Reach out for Jesus". Mrs. Hood, the president, thanked the ladies who looked after the W.M.S. Executive meeting held recently at the church, she was unable to attend. Roll call was answered with scripture verse containing word "Glory", next month "Joy". Final plans were made for the tea and bazaar. The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Dorothy McCullough for the election of officers. All were returned for another year. Next month's meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. McCullough and Miss Gladys Pearase, with the usual Christmas party which they look after every year. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction and refreshments were served by the hostess and her committee.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their annual tea and bazaar on November 11th, at the church. Although the weather was not at its best, the event was well attended. Mrs. Albert Walker greeted the guests at the door and received the admission. The tea table was beautifully decorated with a centrepiece of an open bible on red velvet surrounded by a Christmas garland and two red candles. Each small table was centred with a red candle in holly and poinsettia holders. Those pouring tea were Mrs. Robert C. Jones, wife of the minister, and Mrs. Eric Quirk. Mrs. Quirk also helped serve, along with Mrs. Dorothy McCullough, Mrs. Shirley Foster and two young visitors from Kingston, Kim Barbier and her friend Tammy. In charge of the gift table were Miss Gladys Pearase and

Mrs. Kay Hood. At the bake table, laden with goodies, were Mrs. Percy Brooks and Mrs. Blake Moore. A Touch and Take and White Elephant table combined, was looked after by Mrs. E.B. Higgins and Mrs. V. Boston. Two very busy ladies behind the scenes, in the kitchen, were Mrs. Beryl Herman and Mrs. Violet Barbier. Mrs. Barbier who was visiting her sister, so graciously offered to help. Thanks to the willing workers and those who came, the day was a great success.

The Deseronto Red Cross Society held their meeting on Wednesday evening Nov. 8th at the home of Mrs. Gordon Walker. There were 13 present. The president, Mrs. M. Ryan, opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer, in unison. Reports were given by the various groups. Mrs. Jean Griffiths, who is in charge of the loan cupboard, said there were several items out on loan. Mrs. Kay Hood reported on Senior Citizens and shut-ins. Thirty-five cards were sent to hospitals and birthdays. It was decided small gifts and christmas cards would be sent again this year as usual. Mrs. Gordon Walker for "Women's Work" asked the ladies to please bring in the work that was still out, so that she could send it to Toronto. Two former members who have moved away, Miss Ruth Lloyd and Mrs. Nora Dawson, were presented with small gifts in appreciation for work done while they were in the group. Everyone enjoyed having them back for the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a friendly hour enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Roger McDonald, Riddle and Jeffrey of Kingston spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Moore.

AUTUMN COLOURS BRIGHTEN TEA AND BAZAAR

Saturday may have been a cloudy and rainy day, but it was warm and gay in the Lions Hall in the afternoon where the Catholic Women's League of St. Vincent de Paul Parish held their annual bazaar and tea. The hall was decorated with baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and red carnations.

Mrs. Mervin Sherman, president, and Father G. Van der Heijden, parish priest, welcomed the guests at the door. Mrs. Ed Gordanier sold tickets for the tea table, and Mrs. Donald Reid and Mrs. Gordon Brennan, the draw.

The table of home baked food never fails to be popular. This table was laden with pies, cakes, tarts, cookies, home baked bread, etc. In charge was Mrs. E. Dorey, Mrs. William Cassidy, and Mrs. R.E. Dowling.

The miscellaneous table had aprons, handcrafted articles of all sorts, from crocheted pot holders to knitted baby sets, mitts, etc. Mrs. Matt Cassidy, Mrs. D. Parks and Mrs. Tom Dowling convened the table.

Tickets were sold by Mrs. E. Roach on a $25.00 food voucher donated by A.&P. Stores. This was won by Miss Marguerite Way, Napanee.

Mrs. Wilfred O'Brien and Miss Mary Roach had a wide variety of articles to offer on the white elephant table. There were small crafted knick-knacks which caught the eye of children, used articles of which their owners had tired, but were treasures to others.

The convenors of the tea table were Mrs. M.E. Dowling and Mrs. A. Lord. Small tea tables were made attractive with white cloths and centred with small vases containing yellow chrysanthemums. The tasty sandwiches, fancy cookies, and tea, etc. were arranged by the following ladies: Mrs. J. Lapointe, Mrs. Jack Edwards, Jr., Mrs. Wynne Cassidy, Mrs. L. Tomlinson, and Mrs. J. DeBoer. Serving at the tea tables were Susan Reid, Mary Ann O'Brien, Maureen Cassidy, Debbie Pfeifferle, Lorene Hooper, Diane Edwards and Mrs. Phyllis Murphy. The tea table itself echoed the autumn theme with its floral arrangements of yellow and bronze mums flanked by yellow tapers in silver holders and all arranged on a lovely white damask cloth.

Representatives of sister churches poured tea: Mrs. Fred Farrell of Marysville; Mrs. Adrian Callaghan of Read parish; Mrs. Pat Stewart, United Church Women; Mrs. Robert Tucker, St. Mark's Anglican Church Women; and Mrs. Kay Hood representing the Presbyterian Church of the Redeemer.

Near the close of the afternoon, tickets were drawn for the five cash prizes. The winners were:

- 1st prize $50.00 - Mrs. Don McKittrick, Napanee
2nd prize $25.00 - Mrs. Jas. Corrigan, R.R. 1, Shannonsville
3rd prize $10.00 - Mrs. Grace Pritchard, Deseronto 4th prize $10.00 - Mr. Jas.

tion, their accommodation and dining facilities were described as "totally inadequate", a considerable sum of money was turned over to them to help them to return home. The amount of money was in excess of $66,000.

It is ironic that although so little help was given to assist the Indians to reach Washington and to stay there, on their return trip home, at least one entire caravan had funds to stay in the Holiday Inn!

Tyendinaga 1846

BAY OF QUINTE

There is a great deal of fine land on its banks, but some parts of its borders are rather marshy. The towns of Belleville and Picton are situated on the bay; the former in the Victoria, and the latter in the Prince Edward, District. There is also on the bay, in the township of Tyendinaga, a settlement of Mohawk Indians.

These Indians separated from the Mohawk nation and settled in their present locality about the year 1784. In 1793 they received from the Crown a grant of land, containing about 92,700 acres; but of this, in 1820, they surrendered 33,280 acres, in exchange for an annuity of $450. Their estate was then reduced to 59,400 acres. From this the surveyor general deducts 14,773 acres for crown and clergy reserves; viz., 6,858 for the former, and 7,915 for the latter. In December 1835 they made a further surrender of 27,857 acres, in trust, to be disposed of for their benefit; so that their present possessions do not exceed 16,800 acres.

The Indians live for the most part in detached farms, scattered over the reserve. Their present number is 383. They have 1,368 acres of land cleared, and about 500 acres under tillage. Some of them cultivate considerable quantities of land, so much as fifty acres; but in general the quantity is much less. There have been some instances of successful industry and thriftiness in this community. One of their chiefs, named Hill, who died a few years ago, was remarkable for his industrious habits, and for a desire to accumulate property. Besides his homestead, to the cultivation and improvement of which he paid more than ordinary attention, he became possessed, by purchase, of some of the farms and improvements of other Indians; and at his death, left them, by will, to particular members of his family, who are at this day in full enjoyment of them.

One of his sons, who is catechist to the missionary at the settlement, recently applied for a loan to enable him to build a wharf and commence business as a general trader among his brethren, in partnership with a white man. They possess stock and agricultural implements corresponding to their progress in husbandry. Some of them grow a considerable surplus of grain for sale.

These Indians have long been Christians, probably before their arrival in Canada. A missionary was first appointed to the settlement in 1810, by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts: their present missionary has been among them eleven years, and reports that, during that period, they have made a gradual advance in morals, piety, and industry.

Their church having become too small for the congregation, they are now engaged in the erection of a new and commodious stone edifice, the expense of which will be defrayed out of their own funds.

Some of the young men are employed in quarrying and carrying the materials for this building.

They support a schoolmaster out of the produce of certain small rents, which they receive and manage themselves.

Chief Hill Misquoted

Many of the people on the Tyendinaga Reserve are very disturbed by the recent activism on the part of some Indians, Chief Earl Hill told us today. The majority of the native people work quietly and steadily towards equality and recognition, and are afraid that activism on the part of a few impatient Indians could destroy the amicable relations that they have built up over the years.

The issue came to a head over the demonstration held in Washington this month, when Indians from all over North America descended on the Bureau for Indian Affairs and took over the building. Reports on the amount of damage done to the building vary, but it is certain that they removed valuable Indian artifacts, and also that they went through the files in the offices and removed certain documents. Most of the local Mohawks are concerned that this gives a bad impression of the behaviour of Indian people, and sets a poor example to their own young people.

The second incident was closer to home. Some of the Tyendinaga Mohawks, led by Brant Maracle and supported by non-native students, planned a demonstration outside the CKWS building in Kingston last week, to protest against the "Stoned Ranger" features which the radio station was broadcasting twice daily. Although no demonstration actually took place, Mr. Maracle met with representatives of the radio station to ask that the feature should be stopped.

Chief Hill says that Mr. Maracle misquoted him in the article that the Scanner ran last week. He did call the radio station to point out that the features were offensive to the Indian people, and to recommend that the management of CKWS should examine advertising material carefully before they broadcast it, to make sure that it was not discriminatory. However, Chief Hill spoke as an individual, not as a representative of the council. He also pointed out that though he did phone the radio station about the content of the features he was most definitely not in favour of Mr. Maracle's methods, because he feels that negotiations should be tried in all such cases before resorting to demonstrations.

It was because of Chief Hill's conversation with the representatives of the radio station that the car load of demonstrators with the placards did not arrive. These individuals felt that the matter had been satisfactorily settled, and that it was no longer necessary to picket the CKWS building.

The advertisements featuring the "Stoned Ranger" and his Indian side-kick "Toronto" are no longer broadcast by CKWS, as of last Friday.

Oddfellows Centennial

by Grant Kimmel

No. 102 "Deseronto" Lodge of the Independent Order of Oddfellows received their Charter on the 15th of November 1872. That year No. 1 Bylaw was passed in what was then the village of Mill Point, and in 1881 was was then renamed Deseronto, still as a village, until 1888 when it became a town. Many people have wondered why a group of people would be called oddfellows, the reason was, that a few men were helping widows, caring for sick, and giving aid to orphans, this being done without remuneration, they were thought to be odd, but they considered that there is greater satisfaction in giving, then receiving.

The Oddfellows were organized in April 26th, 1819 in the North American Continent at Baltimore by a Mr. Thomas Wildey and four other oddfellows from England. Today the Order has more than a million members in Canada and 17 foreign countries. The Oddfellows are the largest fraternity in the world under one leader.

The Oddfellows motto is "Friendship, Love and Truth" and their object is to "Improve and Elevate the Character of Man."

Odd Fellowship was the first fraternity to recognize the humane value of womanhood, admitting women as members 70 years before they were allowed to vote in the United States, in fact, it was the first women's fraternal organization in the world, and called the "Rebekah Branch" of Oddfellowship.

Oddfellows originated the concept of Homes for the aged, and today we have 64, that care for aged members and children of deceased members around the world.

We are the only fraternal order that is allowed to conduct an educational programme at

Mr. Sexsmith gave information to the Deseronto Police in recent months, which resulted in the arrest and conviction of such a driver.

the Quinte Scanner

Editorial

How many non-prejudiced people do you know? We're not talking about large scale prejudice, oddly enough that is fairly easy to eliminate individually, once it is recognized. A little careful thought will soon make it clear that an Indian is just another human being with his own personal strengths and weaknesses; so is a Toronto Italian, a Fish Lake farmer or one of us latter day Loyallists.

Let's look instead at the unconscious prejudices drilled into each and every one of us through the years by our ethnic background, upbringing, teaching and personal experiences -- "slimy" snakes, horsemeat -- ugh! the "cold" scientist, "pig-headed" Englishmen, "those damned Dutchmen", "stubborn Geminis", "don't trust him, he's from a bad family", "the kid can't be any good, he's from Deseronto", "quick-tempered" redheads, "I've been jewed". Strange music, strange food, strange clothing, so often rejected without reason or trial, "long haired hippies", "city slickers"; "stupid Newfies" and other ethnic jokes that serve to perpetuate prejudice.

We believe that every one of us is guilty of this kind of prejudice, we also believe that every human being has a thinking brain and should have the right to use that brain to develop his own ideas on the nature of God, the best political party and how he should conduct his life. Clashes of opinion are inevitable, people are individuals, their opinions are also individual. The best we can do is to allow each person the rights we want for ourselves, to look at every side of a question, to tolerate where we cannot agree and to acknowledge agreement wherever we can.

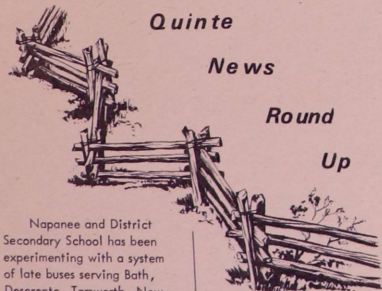

The Quinte Scanner tries to be "an independent voice for the Quinte area", which means that we are prepared to voice any individual's opinions, whether we agree with them or not. This is our prejudice.

Napanee and District Secondary School has been experimenting with a system of late buses serving Bath, Deseronto, Tamworth, Newburgh, Yarker and Moscow to transport rural students home when they have stayed late at school to take part in extra-curricular activities. The trial period is due to expire in December.

The head boy, James Wood, of Newburgh approached Lennox and Addington County Board of Education trustees to have the service continued. He reported that over three thousand students have used the late bus lines since they started operating last April. The school board moved to continue the service until June, 1973.

The only inmate still at large after the mass break out from Millhaven jail, may now be in Yugoslavia. The RCMP and Interpol are conducting the inquiries.

Prince Edward-Lennox is entitled to enjoy its share of the prosperity of the province, according to James Taylor, MLA for the riding. Mr. Taylor, speaking at the all candidates meeting in Napanee, stressed the importance of electing strong, articulate people to municipal offices, who can make their views known. He also said that municipalities should work out their own goals and make them forcefully known to the government.

all-candidates' meeting

Next Tuesday, November 28th, a special Meet the Candidates Night will be held in the Deseronto Lions Hall. Since the change in the nominating system for municipal elections eliminated nomination meetings, Deseronto, like many other municipalities, is using the Meet the Candidates Night as an opportunity for everyone to hear the views of those who are running for election this year. All candidates will be given equal opportunities to speak and answer questions. Those who do not wish to put their questions directly to the candidates may use the pencils and paper provided and place them in a question box. Rev. Cyril Betts, of Christ Church, Tyendinaga Reserve, will chair the meeting and has agreed that questions may be put to individuals or to the candidates for a certain office.

Six candidates are standing for the three councillor seats, they are, in alphabetical order, Peter Dickinson, John Neal, Kevin Sexsmith, Frank Tapping, Fletcher Vick and Terry Whalen. Of these six, Peter Dickinson and Fletcher Vick are seeking re-election.

Merton Cummings is seeking re-election as Public Utilities Commissioner and is being opposed by Arthur Hunter.

Two newcomers are standing for election to the school board, Carmen Gibson and Kenneth Little.

Meet the Candidates Night should, therefore, be an ideal opportunity for all those who wish to meet, and hear the views of, the men who are willing to represent them in municipal affairs for the next term of office. It will enable everyone to vote wisely for the man best suited to represent them.

Town Council

by Del Wannamaker

One of the shortest meetings on record was held in the Town Council chambers Monday night. With two members absent and little correspondence the members set right in to what is most likely the shortest meeting ever. The meeting started with the minutes of the last meeting being read at 7:35, council adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

A letter from the Deseronto Trail Blazers was read, they asked council for a donation of $75.00 with which to purchase equipment to help maintain the snowmobile trails throughout Hastings county. The donation was granted.

A streets committee meeting was held on Nov. 8/72, and streets chairman Jim McVicker stated that extra help for snow removal had been ar-

Hockey registrations are to be held on Saturday, Nov. 25th at the arena.

Recreation chairman Peter Dickinson has been given permission from council to purchase a V8 motor for the recreation bus, at a cost of $250, complete and ready to be installed.

Mr. Orval Brant and Jerry Lawlor have said that they will install the motor for the committee. Mr. Dickinson also turned over to the town clerk a cheque for approximately $250, so the cost of the motor will be no burden on the tax payers.

Mr. Dickinson asked council to be sure of the site of the arena, as work is expected to begin in the near future, and that before work can begin a soil test will have to be run.

Because of the election on Monday, Dec. 4, the next council meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 5/72.

Photos of the "Centennial" council are to be mounted and framed at a cost of less than $50.00. These will be hung in the council chambers for all to see.

DESERONTO ODDFELLOWS
CELEBRATE CENTENNIAL
THIS WEEK 1872-1972

the United Nations, so far 15,000 High School students have received expense free trips to the UN as guests of the Oddfellows and Rebekahs. Tours afford time to visit State capitals and countryside scenic and historical attractions.

Youth are not forgotten, Oddfellowship has Junior Lodges (12-21 years) and the Theta Rho Clubs for girls (10-21 years), diversified and healthful projects, make up their programmes which motivate young people to work for the good things of life.

The oddfellows are active in a number of projects. (1) The Hospital Bed, C.P. & T. programme which is a humanitarian service for cancer, polio and tuberculosis victims, committees are formed across the province, that loan out, free of cost, beds, overbed tables, crutches, wheel chairs, walkers and numerous other things for the sick or sick room, these are available regardless of race, creed, or colour. (2) In latter years the Oddfellows have become involved in eye research, throughout the world the Oddfellows and Rebekahs have raised $750,000 for the establishment of an Endowed Chair in ophthalmic research at the Wilmer Institute of John Hopkins University in Baltimore, also, a number of Oddfellows have and are pledging their eyes after death for research. Belleville Junior Lodge made a very good donation to this programme a while ago.

In the United States, the Oddfellows are the only organization which has been allowed to present medals (The Decoration of Chivalry) to their "Three Unknown Soldiers."

The Deseronto Lodge 102 is under the leadership of Grant Kimmitt (Noble Grand) and Gary Thompson (Vice Grand, with Harry Fraser as Financial and Recording Sec. which he has done very well for almost 25 years, with time out to be District Deputy Grand Master and Noble Grand (twice). The Lodge hold their meetings on the first and third Monday of each month at the Masonic Building on Main St.

The Oddfellows are the oldest fraternal organization in Deseronto, the brothers would be pleased to give any one information or a membership application if asked. We have an advanced branch called the Encampment, also the ("Patriarchs Militant", whose members form a semi-military part of our order.) Though our order is not a religion, notable at our lodge meetings, the Bible reposes on the altar, and the National flag of our country is in its standard, we emphasize that Oddfellows have Love of God, and Country, and Peace and Harmony among all men.

OBITUARY

MARACLE - Mrs. Bella May, of 95 Green Street, Deseronto, passed away November 15th in her 67th year. She was the dear daughter of the late Bert Leaf and the late Mabel Pearson. Plan Quinte federation office

from Farm & Country

Lennox and Addington Federation of Agriculture has grown from 125 members to 190 in the past year. Mrs. Hilda Magee, secretary-treasurer of the group, told the annual meeting. The county has an estimated 600 active farmers.

During the past year several resolutions were sent to the Toronto headquarters of the OFA, she said. One of these dealt with the plight of local farmers as a result of a rabies epidemic in the area. The resolution called for free vaccinations to be made available for farm live stock.

The county group also did a large part of the basic thinking and formulation of "a definition of a farmer". The final proposal of the OFA for such a definition is nearly identical to the one designed in the county.

Plans are underway to join four Quinte area counties and set up a regional office to serve the 600 Individual Service Members in the area. It is expected another 400 members will join the OFA by July 1, 1973.

A proposal worked out by representatives of the four county federations has been sent to the executive of the OFA. Plans call for a regional office to be set up in either Belleville or in Kingston.

their assessment. This means that they are taxed on these old structures, removing them would improve the appearance of the properties and also lower the taxes.

We also have some old cars which should be taken away or hidden from view to make driving through our township more appealing.

Because Sophiasburg has little industry we still have hundreds of beautiful building lots to attract people to build new homes in our township.

I expect 1973 to show an increase in building over 1972.

Sophiasburgh

BUILDING INSPECTOR'S REPORT

The Sophiasburg Building Inspector's Report for 1972 was presented to a council meeting held on November 20th, 1972.

According to the report the year 1972 set a record for building permits issued for the Township of Sophiasburg, and from the information available to date, it appears that 1973 will be even higher.

In 1971 the permits issued were valued at $295,000, in 1972 this sum rose to $448,000, making an increase of $143,000, and the largest amount for permits issued since the new system was installed. Ten permits were issued for new houses, 3 for mobile homes, 5 for barns, 4 for silos and 3 for cottages. The balance consists of additions to existing homes, machine sheds, milking parlours, etc.

The value for building permits for the new CTV tower at Green Point was $109,500. At the present mill rate this will bring a substantial sum to the township in tax.

Some of the buildings for which permits were issued are not completed, and have not been assessed. These will run into next year.

I am presently working on a project for Sophiasburg which will involve an investment of approximately $150,000 if it develops and would add substantially to the taxes.

Sophiasburg is a beautiful township and I would like to make an appeal to land owners who have dilapidated old buildings. Not only are these buildings an eyesore and a hazard, but they are included in

Mowat wants Bluenose II

Well known author Farley Mowat wants to charter the schooner Bluenose II from the Nova Scotia government for a privately-sponsored trip around the world to study whales.

Mr. Mowat plans to be among the founders of a Canadian organization for whale conservation, to be affiliated with Project Jonah.

Mr. Mowat's recent book, "A Whale for the Killing" shows his own interest in these huge mammals very clearly. He wants to study the creatures before they become too rare to find. A schooner, which can use wind power alone can approach the animals quietly, without disturbing them as a motor vessel would.

The winner!

AARON SEXSMITH IS EVERY INCH A WINNER

Eight-month-old Aaron Sexsmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Sexsmith of Deseronto won first place in the Hadassah baby photo contest in Kingston last Wednesday.

Judging over 150 entries proved difficult for pediatricians Dr. Ron Masotti, Dr.

Janet McConville and Dr. M. Mehlomakulu.

The gold trophy for first place went to this photograph of Aaron, taken when he was three and a half months old. The presentation was made at the LaSalle Hotel on Nov. 22nd.

Monday, Dec. 4th is Election Day

On Tuesday, Nov. 28th Deseronto holds its All Candidates Night. The meeting will take place after the Scanner goes to press, and since the next edition will not be published until Wednesday Dec. 6th, the Scanner contacted all the candidates who could be reached, so that those electors who do not attend the meeting will also know what the candidates think about current issues, and what their platforms are.

Of the six men standing for the three council seats, Mr. Peter Dickinson, who is up for re-election to council said that his primary aim is to control the taxes. He stated that he did not think it would be possible to decrease the taxes, but that the rate of increase must be controlled in the future. He is also particularly interested in recreation, and has served as chairman of the recreation committee this year; he hopes that work on the rink can be started during 1973-74.

Mr. Fletcher Vick, who is also standing for re-election is out of town at present, and was not available for comments.

The remaining four nominees for council are all newcomers. Mr. Kevin Sexsmith feels that he has ideas which could be used to encourage the development of Deseronto.

In his opinion a great effort must be made to encourage residential developments, which will spread the tax load. He also feels that further industrial development must be strongly encouraged. Mr. Sexsmith would like to see a system of keeping the electors informed about council's activities, perhaps by publishing a full report of every meeting, which he feels is one of the duties of the town council.

Mr. Frank Topping is also a newcomer for nomination to council, although he has served on the PUC for 16 years. He feels it is time for someone new to serve on the commission, and that the experience he has had in the past as a member of the PUC can be put to good use as a councillor.

He is not in favour of the town attempting any more major projects, because of its limited finances, he says that the majority of Deseronto citizens can simply not afford any more expenditure. He feels that although the water situation is not the best in the world, it is not as bad as it is made out to be. If elected to council Mr. Topping says he intends to play an active part in the proceedings, and not "Sit there like a block of wood."

Mr. John Neal, also standing for election to council for the first time, says that he cares about the situation in the town, and feels particularly strongly about the sewers. He says that the sewers are taxing more than his patience, and that this situation should be remedied.

The last candidate for council is Mr. Terry Whalen, who has paid taxes in Deseronto for 19 years. Mr. Whalen says he has no axe to grind with the present council, but that he would like to see further improvements in the town, especially as far as the streets are concerned. He is particularly interested in improving the condition of the streets throughout the whole town to reduce the dust in summertime and to ensure adequate snow removal in the winter. He would like to see snow removal from sidewalks extended to all streets, not just the main ones, and especially along Dundas Street so that "school-children" do not have to walk on the highway. Mr. Whalen says that if he is elected he is prepared to work for the good of the town and all its citizens.

In addition to the candidates for council two nominations have been made for the vacant position on the Public Utilities Commission.

Cement Licence Held Up

In a letter to the Lake Ontario Cement Company Ltd., Resources Minister Leo Bernier has stated that no quarry licence will be issued to the plant at this time.

Mr. Stewart Norval, president of local 387 United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers International, said the letter implied that no licence would be issued until the court case, involving charges under the Beach Protection Act, now being fought in Toronto, is settled.

Mr. Norval has asked members of Prince Edward County council to join him and other union members in a picket march at Queen's Park to protest the Sandbanks controversy and the government's delay in granting a quarry licence to LOCL.

A small group of people in Picton recently saw videotapes of a Canadian-built submersible, Tudlik, in operation in the Bay of Fundy.

Mr. Ben Ackerman showed the films of the six ton deep-diving vessel, the first of its type built in Ontario. The Tudlik has mechanical arms, sonar, TV and photographic equipment on board. Its modular construction allows flexibility for changes in design and instrumentation.

Among the people who saw the film was Mr. Jack Christie, director of the Glenora Fisheries Research Station of the Department of Natural Resources. Consideration is being given to the use of submersibles in fisheries research studies in Canada.

Richmond Township has presented Lennox and Addington County with a bill for fire protection service for Lenado, the county home for the aged. Richmond Reeve Arthur Switzer said that the township had to have a $600 pumping station built to supply the home with water, and commented that the township was only asking for something that was fair.

Mr. Creighton, chairman of the county home and welfare committee said that if there was a fire at the home, the county had agreed to pay fire fighting expenses.

The county council accepted the report of the county home and welfare committee, which suggested that the account should not be paid.

Deputy Reeve Ernest Marshall told council that if Richmond won't supply fire protection to the county home then Naponee will do it for nothing.

The Proctor Lewyt Co. followed last week's announcement of a proposed expansion with a reduction in its present staff. Forty employees are to be laid off as of Dec. 4th because of reductions in output on all production lines.

A Toronto historian, Eula Carscallen Lapp, is one of four Canadians to be honoured for her work by the American Association for State and Local History.

Mrs. Lapp was the author of the publication "To Their Heirs Forever", a biography of eleven UEL Methodist families who moved to the Quinte area from New York.

The Lake Ontario shoreline of Prince Edward County has been declared a whitefish sanctuary from Nov. 15 to Dec. 31. During this time, netting of whitefish within the area is forbidden.

The reason for the ban is that the southern shoreline of Prince Edward County is the biggest remaining spawning area for the whitefish, which are now in the spawning season.

Officials report that fishermen are generally co-operative since they realize that it is in their own interests to let the fish spawn successfully.

herself on guitar. On Saturday, December the 9th, closing day of the festivities, the Christmas basket draw will be made. During the week the house will be open from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and also Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10:00 to 12:00 and Wednesday evening 7:00 to 9:00.

Cookies and apple cider will be served to all visitors to the Allan and Mary Macpherson House and we hope you will take home with you a little of the spirit of Christmas from the 1800's.

Santa's parade in Napanee

Napanee's Santa Claus Parade was held last Saturday. Crowds packed Dundas Street for eight blocks to see the fifteen floats, eight bands and seven groups of majorettes go by.

The bands represented all types of musical talent, there were three groups of sea cadets, two pipe bands, a rock group, a jazz band and the concert band from Sydenham High School.

Deseronto majorettes marched in the parade, as did other groups from Harrowsmith, Prince Edward County, Belleville and, of course, Napanee.

Napanee District Secondary School art clubs did their share towards making the parade a success by making a wide selection of papier mache heads, so that clowns and wild animals were scattered throughout the parade.

Local dignitaries, Mayor Lorne Smart, MLA James Taylor and MP Douglas Alkenbrack took part in the festivities.

Mr. Merton Cummings wishes to thank those who nominated him, and says that he has been doing the best job possible for the past term and will continue to do anything he can to better the town and improve the system and services.

His opponent in the PUC election is Mr. Arthur Hunter. Mr. Hunter says that his reason for running is the belief that he can work effectively for the people of the community in managing the revenue and the costs of the PUC. He feels that the present burden on the people is tremendous and that only good management will prevent it from getting even further out of proportion.

old fashioned cooking at Macpherson House

It's that time of year again and, if you are not already in the mood, here is just the thing for you. Visit historic

Macpherson House, in Napanee, and after a few minutes of sniffing aromas coming from the kitchen, watching traditionally dressed ladies bustling about and enthusiastic children with glue on themselves and everything else, and viewing evergreen boughs, cranberry and popcorn garlands hanging about the house, you will want to rush right home and start your own preparations, but don't hurry off --- stay for cookies and apple cider, leisurely survey the wares of the gift shop and linger over the home bake sale table.

The many displays are sure to offer something of interest to everyone. Little girls (and mummies) will be fascinated with the dress styles and features of the doll collection. Mr. Bruce Alkenbrack's collection of Indian artifacts will interest the stone and bone fancier and Sam Markle's gun collection will get the attention of many a man. An antique pipe collection and old Christmas card collection will also be exhibited.

The ladies, especially, will be inspired by the cooking and cooking methods used around 1860's. They will see butter in the making from sour cream being churned to the finished butter pressed into moulds. Bread baking is equally fascinating and, when taken from the oven, its distinctive aroma fills the house. Everyone, we imagine, has popped popcorn, but --- over a fireplace? or made fried-cakes (doughnuts) in a kettle over a blazing fire? They did in the 1800's and they do in '72 at Macpherson House. Spinning and weaving may be beyond many of us, but, under the nimble, knowing fingers of Mrs. Louise Graves and ladies from the "Kingston Handloom Weavers and Spinners", the work will entrance you.

Children will, no doubt, be interested in watching other children trying their hand, and imaginations, at making Christmas decorations for the halls and rooms of the historic house --- perhaps interested enough to make them for their own homes (parents willing).

Everyone, young and old will positively find their way to the kissing bough (perhaps more than once). Built in the form of a sphere or globe, with fruit and decorations hanging from the evergreen frame, the ever prominent mistletoe fastened from the centre bottom is, of course, what really gives the bough its name and reputation.

The Christmas Play, written by Mrs. Drew, and featured on opening day, Sunday, the 3rd, with three performances at 2:30, 4:00 and 7:00 p.m., will share the glory with St. Mary Magdalene's Church choir and folk singer, Linda Kirilis, accompanying
